

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Performance and ball of Russian Br. S. P. tonight, West Side auditorium, Taylor and Racine. "God, Man and the Devil," by J. Gordon. Benefit of the headquarters and library.

Public invited to lecture at Liberty hall, 2941 Indiana av., Sat. night, given by Chas. Halmon, organizer for Farmers' National Co-operative ass'n. Subject, "Co-operation."

Harold Marshall, Boston, will speak at North Side People's Forum, Lane Tech high school on "Can We Save Our Civilization?" Tonight.

Theosophical ass'n meets Sun., 3:30 p. m., Besant hall, 116 S. Michigan av. Francis G. Hanchett speaks on "Helping the World."

League of Humanity meets Sun., 8 p. m., Colonial hall, 20 Randolph. Daniel H. Wallace speaks on his experiences while fighting in the trenches of Europe.

South Side People's Forum meets Sun., 4 p. m., Oakwood blvd. and Langley av. Harold Marshall of Boston speaks on "Can We Save Our Civilization." Questions from the floor. Free.

West Side People's Forum, Sun., 7:45 p. m. Harold Marshall of Boston speaks on "Can We Save Our Civilization." Questions from the floor. Free.

Universalist Church of the Redeemer, Robey and Warren av., Sun., 10:45. Harold Marshall of Boston speaks on "Universal Mobilization."

Jack London memorial meeting at K. of P. hall, 11037 Michigan av., Sun., 8 p. m. Speaker, Arthur M. Lewis.

Civic Concert at Garfield Park rectory, Sun., 3 p. m. C. W. Edwards, director of Garfield Park Methodist church, will give musical program. C. W. Farr an illustrated talk.

"Is Birth Control Immoral?" subject of open debate and discussion in hall 210, Masonic Temple, auspices International New Thought Fellowship, Sun. eve., Leslie Wahl conducting services.

Economic Forum, 20 W. Randolph st., Sunday, 8 p. m. Lecture, "Birth Control or Fewer and Happier Children," by Lucy E. Parsons.

"Resolved, That Military Preparedness Is Beneficial to the Working Class," subject of debate between Fellowship Circle and Northwest Side Y. P. S. L., Sun., 7:30 p. m., at the Berg Progressive Preparatory school, Hoyne av. and Division st. Musical program. Admission free.

Rev. Edward Ellis Carr, editor of Christian Socialist, will talk at regular monthly meet of Chicago Christian Socialist/Fellowship, Sun., 2:45 p. m., in hall 601, Masonic Temple.

Wallace A. C. gives masked ball at Celtic Dancing Academy, formerly Sans Souci ballroom, 61st and Cottage Grove av., tonight.

W. F. McGee, former Roman Catholic clergyman, will lecture in Corinthian hall, Masonic Temple, Sun., 11:15 a. m. on "Why Catholic Church Opposes Birth Control."

Northwest Y. P. S. L. and Fellowship Circle will debate Sun., 8 p. m., on "Resolved, That Preparedness Is Beneficial to the Working Class," at Progressive Prep. school, 2058 Division st. Musical program. All invited.

Miscellaneous Hotel and Restaurant Employees' ass'n, Local 874, will hold regular and special meeting, Monday morning, at 8 o'clock, for nightworkers, and another one Tuesday evening for dayworkers. All members requested to attend these meetings. February button will be given away. No one will be allowed to work without button.

New York. — Society women will publish highbrow magazine which will be sold only to society women and at $1 a copy. Will publish no advertising.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Steamers Nevada, Illinois and Missouri and a car ferry are fast in ice here.